

'FLOWER SHOP MYSTERY: MUM'S THE WORD'

SYNOPSIS

Abby Knight (Shields), a former lawyer turned proud flower shop owner is starting over after the death of her husband with the support from her father (Bridges), a new business and her daughter off to college. Life is good in the peaceful town of New Chapel but when a black SUV rams her prized vintage car, she's determined to track down the driver. She begrudgingly accepts the help of a new neighbor, the handsome and charming ex-Marine Marco Salvare (Elliott) who just bought the bar down the street. But their budding relationship is threatened when an acquaintance is murdered and Abby's good friend is the prime suspect and it all links back to the hit and run. Caught up in a tangle of menacing phone calls, police corruption and murderous road rage, Abby must work against the clock to find the killer or the next flower arrangement might be for her own funeral.
