STUDIO CITY, CA – July 13, 2017 – An old reel-to-reel tape recorder purchased at a garage sale leads to the discovery of a dead body, and may also have recorded the murder of its owner, in "Garage Sale Mystery: A Case of Murder," a new original premiering Sunday, August 27, (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries. The film stars Lori Loughlin ("When Calls the Heart," "Fuller House") and Sarah Strange ("Life as We Know It").

After garage sale shopper extraordinaire Jennifer Shannon (Loughlin) and her resale business partner Dani (Strange) purchase an old reel-to-reel tape recorder at a garage sale, a strange recording on the machine leads Jennifer to believe a murder might have been committed – and recorded without the killer's knowledge. And when a body turns up that just happens to be the recorder's former owner, Jennifer's curiosity leads her to learn that the dead man is a doctor who recently left the therapy group he led, to the dismay of all his patients. Now, she is "unofficially" working the case alongside a local detective, and discovers that the man's jealous wife – or any of his clingy patients – might be targeting her next in order to get her off the killer's trail.

"Garage Sale Mystery: A Case of Murder" is a Bargain Street Productions XI, Ltd. Lori Loughlin, Michael Sherpard, Marnie Termuende, Jonathan Axelrod, Alan Ett and Harvey Kahn are executive producers. Harvey Kahn is producer. Neill Fearnley directs from a script by Kraig Wenman.
