

A YOUNG WOMAN'S PASSION FOR A BELOVED HOLIDAY TRADITION CARVES A PATH TO LOVE IN
'CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL OF ICE'
NEW, ORIGINAL MOVIE PREMIERING NOVEMBER 4, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

Part of the Network's Popular, Annual "Countdown to Christmas" Programming Event

Taylor Cole ("The Originals," "Summerland") and Damon Runyan ("Star Trek: Discovery") star in "Christmas Festival of Ice," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, November 4, (8 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Channel as part of the network's popular, annual "Countdown to Christmas" programming event.

For as long as she can remember, Emma Parkers (Cole) and her dad have competed as an ice sculpting team in Westford, New Hampshire's annual Christmas Festival of Ice. Returning to Westford following law school, Emma is devastated to learn the competition has been cancelled and sets out to raise the money needed to resurrect it. Along the way, she meets local Christmas tree farmer Nick Claiborne (Runyan), whose hidden talent for sculpting ice brings them together. When Emma and Nick team up for the competition, romantic sparks fly as they work together to bring home the first-place trophy, and Emma figures out what she wants to do with the rest of her life, which will surely include Nick.
