

AUTUMN REESER STARS AS A SINGLE MOM WHO GETS A NEW LEASE ON LIFE – AND POSSIBLY LOVE – FROM AN UNEXPECTED CHRISTMAS GIFT IN
'A BRAMBLE HOUSE CHRISTMAS'
A NEW ORIGINAL PREMIERING NOVEMBER 19, ON HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES

David Haydn-Jones Co-Stars in Adaptation of C.J. Carmichael's Novel

Autumn Reeser ("The Arrangement," "The O.C.") and David Haydn-Jones ("Supernatural," "Bridal Wave") star in "A Bramble House Christmas," a new original premiering Sunday, November 12 (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries as part of the network's annual, popular "Most Wonderful Miracles of Christmas" programming event. Teryl Rothery ("Debbie Macomber's Cedar Cove," "Stargate: SG-1") also stars.

Shortly before Christmas, single mother and healthcare worker Willa Fairchild (Reeser) gets the unexpected news that she is a beneficiary in a recent patient's will. Moved by the sacrifices Willa made to save her son Scout (Liam Hughes, "When Calls the Heart") from a life-threatening illness, Greg Conrad (Bruce Dawson, Fifty Shades of Grey) wanted to give his nurse the same chance for a fresh start that her son now has. In addition to a cash bequest equal to the family's medical bills, Greg arranged for Willa and Scout to experience the magic of Christmas at the Victorian-era Bramble House in Bramble, Oregon. To Scout's delight, they are soon joined at Bramble House by Finn Knightly (Haydn-Jones), the illustrator of his favorite book series, Everyday Sam. However, Finn's visit isn't the happy accident it seems to be: he is Greg Conrad's estranged son and he has come to Bramble specifically to confront the nurse he suspects of manipulating his father for financial gain. Concealing his identity, Finn joins Willa and Scout as they take part in the town's traditional Noel festivities. But as Finn realizes he's falling for Willa, he's faced with the terrible quandary of how to confess his deception without ruining their budding romance.
