

CREDITS

Title: "A Bramble House Christmas"

Format: Two-hour Hallmark Channel Original Movie

Network: Hallmark Movies & Mysteries

Storyline: Shortly before Christmas, single mother and healthcare worker Willa Fairchild gets the unexpected news that she is a beneficiary in a recent patient's will. Moved by the sacrifices Willa made to save her son Scout from a life-threatening illness, Greg Conrad wanted to give his nurse the same chance for a fresh start that her son now has. In addition to a cash bequest equal to the family's medical bills, Greg arranged for Willa and Scout to experience the magic of Christmas at the Victorian-era Bramble House in Bramble, Oregon. To Scout's delight, they are soon joined at Bramble House by Finn Knightly, the illustrator of his favorite book series, "Everyday Sam." However, Finn's visit isn't the happy accident it seems to be: he is Greg Conrad's estranged son and he has come to Bramble specifically to confront the nurse he suspects of manipulating his father for financial gain. Concealing his identity, Finn joins Willa and Scout as they take part in the town's traditional Noel festivities. But as Finn realizes he's falling for Willa, he's faced with the terrible quandary of how to confess his deception without losing her trust.

Executive Producers: Kim Arnott
Harry Winer
Ivan Hayden

Producer: John Prince

(more)

HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES – 'A BRAMBLE HOUSE CHRISTMAS' — CREDITS/Page 2

Production credit: 4 Ever Christmas Productions Inc.

Directed by: Steven R. Monroe

Written by: Jamie Pachino

Based on: "A Bramble House Christmas" by C.J. Carmichael

Director of Photography: Ron Stannett

Production Designer: Nick Richardson

Art Director: Fraser Hagen

Edited by: Fabiola Caraza

Casting by: Jackie Lind

Cast: Autumn Reeser (Willa)
David Haydn-Jones (Finn)
Liam Hughes (Scout)
Teryl Rothery (Mable)
Hilary Jardine (Sage)
Julia Benson (Molly)
Andrew Airlie (Ken)
Lyla Marlow (Savannah)
Bruce Dawson (Greg)

#

-- HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES --