A MARRIAGE PROPOSAL COMES WITH A ROYAL SURPRISE IN 'ROYALLY EVER AFTER'
A NEW, ORIGINAL MOVIE PREMIERING MAY 19, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – April 18, 2018 – Fiona Gubelmann (“The Good Doctor”) and Torrance Coombs (“The Reign”) star in “Royally Ever After” a new, original movie premiering Saturday May 19, (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Channel.

Sara’s (Gubelmann) dream of finding the perfect mate is realized when her boyfriend, struggling writer Daniel (Coombs), proposes marriage on the anniversary of their first meeting, but there is one tiny hitch. It turns out he is the real-life prince of a small European monarchy, and his marriage requires the approval of his royal parents, both of whom are steeped in tradition and staunchly inflexible. They are also dead-set against his marrying a commoner, much less one from New Jersey. Upon their arrival in their country, it soon becomes clear that Sara will have to do more than simply impress the in-laws-to-be. If she wants to become Daniel’s wife, she’ll have to prove she’s got all the makings of an honest-to-goodness princess, without giving up who she is in the process.

“Royally Ever After” was filmed on location in Dublin, Ireland, and is a Crown Media Family Network production. Bill Greenblatt and Kat Green serve as producers. Lee Friedlander directed from a script by Aury Wallington.
