ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

TRACE IS OFFERED A GIG AT A HUGE CONCERT THAT WOULD MEAN MORE TIME AWAY FROM ABBY IN
'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
PREMIERING SUNDAY, AUGUST 12, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – Though they are blissfully together in “Chesapeake Shores,” Trace (Jesse Metcalfe) faces a difficult decision and Abby (Meghan Ory) is confronted by ghosts from her past in “The Way We Were,” Sunday, August 12 (9 p.m. ET/PT). When a country legend offers Trace a gig that could propel his career, he weighs the benefits against the massive cost of being away from Abby and the girls again. Abby feels guilty when she finds a letter that she wrote Trace years ago – still unopened – and questions what to do with it. Mick (Treat Williams) and Megan (Barbara Niven) meet up with Thomas (Gregory Harrison), whose rekindled marriage with his once-estranged wife prompts each of them to assess their own relationship. Bree (Emilie Ullerup) is surprised when Simon (Oliver Rice) returns to her life, but is without her go to sounding board because Jess (Laci Mailey) is still hurt about her manuscript. Kevin (Brendan Penny) is concerned when he sees Connor’s (Andrew Francis) girlfriend out with another man. Meanwhile, Nell (Diane Ladd) continues her fight to preserve the town’s wishing fountain.
