ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

TRACE AND ABBY NAVIGATE NEW TERRITORY
WHEN ABBY'S GIRLS QUESTION TRACE'S ROLE IN THEIR LIVES IN
'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
PREMIERING SUNDAY, AUGUST 19, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – Trace (Jesse Metcalfe) and Abby (Meghan Ory) hit an unexpected hiccup in their family dynamic in “Chesapeake Shores,” after Trace takes on more of a father figure role in “This Rock Is Going to Roll,” Sunday, August 19 (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Channel. While Trace reading bedtime stories to the girls is a milestone in his relationship with Abby, the moment has an unexpected consequence when the girls question his role in their lives. Bree (Emilie Ullerup) joins Jess (Laci Mailey) on a trip to visit David (Carlo Marks) and his parents, but Jess continues to harbor hurt feelings over Bree’s manuscript. Jess needs Bree’s support more than ever, though, when she discovers the real reason David’s parents want to meet her. Mick (Treat Williams) sees striking similarities between his troubled relationship with his brother and his sons’ relationship with one another when Kevin (Brendan Penny) and Connor (Andrew Francis) feud over Kevin’s meddling in Connor’s relationship. Meanwhile, Nell (Diane Ladd) ramps up her persuasive tactics to convince the mayor to keep the wish fountain.
