ABBY AND TRACE FACE A FUTURE SEPARATION
AND THE O'BRIENS FACE THEIR PAST IN BREE'S BOOK IN
'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
SEPTEMBER 30, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – Abby (Megan Ory) and Trace (Jesse Metcalfe) face a serious crossroads in “Chesapeake Shores,” and contemplate their future in “Forward to the Past,” premiering Sunday, September 30 (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Channel. Abby is caught in the middle when Trace and Mick’s (Treat Williams) legal conflict over The Bridge escalates. Their relationship is put to an even larger test, however, when Trace considers a tour offer that would take him away from Abby and the girls for the longest period yet. Despite Nell’s (Diane Ladd) efforts to keep the peace, the O’Briens are embattled over Bree’s (Emilie Ullerup) book, while Mick and Megan (Barbara Niven) disagree with how their family history has been portrayed. Kevin (Brendan Penny) drives Sarah (Jessica Sipos) to Philadelphia for her new job and seeing her with her family makes their pending separation even harder. Jess (Laci Mailey) and David (Carlo Marks) make the most out of an unexpected delivery while managing Sally’s, and Bree makes the most out of an unexpected visitor from Simon’s (Oliver Rice) past. Meanwhile, Connor (Andrew Francis) and Danielle (Britt Irvin) consider rekindling their relationship.
