ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

ABBY AND TRACE FACE AN UNCERTAIN FUTURE
WHILE THE O'BRIENS FINALLY OPEN UP ABOUT THE PAST IN THE SEASON THREE FINALE OF
'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
OCTOBER 7, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – In the season three finale of “Chesapeake Shores,” Abby (Megan Ory) and Trace (Jesse Metcalfe) try resolve their future, and the O’Briens try to resolve their past in “Before a Following Sea,” Sunday, October 7 (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Channel. Trace and Abby are immediately confronted with the fall out of his tour decision, ultimately seeking guidance from Nell. Mick (Treat Williams) prepares for the annual regatta with Connor (Andrew Francis) and Thomas (Gregory Harrison), and uses his time on the water to contemplate his relationship with his family. On top of the conflict with her family over her book, Bree (Emilie Ullerup) also deals with an extended visit from a muse that inspired Simon’s (Oliver Rice) books. Jess (Laci Mailey) receives unexpected visitors of her own: David’s (Carlo Marks) parents, who come with an offer that could impact Jess and David’s future. Kevin (Brendan Penny) and Sarah (Jessica Sipos) try to make their long-distance relationship work. Finally, after years of avoiding it, Mick and Megan (Barbara Niven) confront Bree about their family history.
