ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

LACEY CHABERT AND BRENNAN ELLIOTT REUNITE TO STAR IN 'ALL OF MY HEART: THE WEDDING'
PREMIERING SEPTEMBER 29, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

Part of the Network's "Fall Harvest" Programming Event

STUDIO CITY, CA – Lacey Chabert (Mean Girls, "Party of Five") and Brennan Elliott ("Debbie Macomber's Cedar Cover," "Criminal Minds") reunite to star in Hallmark Channel's "All of My Heart: The Wedding," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, September 29, (9 p.m. ET/PT) as part of the network's "Fall Harvest" programming event. Starring alongside Chabert and Elliott is seven-time Emmy® and five-time Golden Globe® winner Ed Asner ("The Mary Tyler Moore Show," Elf).

Jenny (Chabert), Brian (Elliott) and Emily's Country Inn are equally embraced by their local community and now almost everyone will be coming to Jenny and Brian's wedding, including Vern (Asner), who has been tapped to give away the bride. But suddenly, a woman, Meg (Pauline Egin), arrives with papers claiming she's also an heir to the inn. Shocked, Brian and Emily try to raise the money they need to buy Meg out, but even ramping up sales of Jenny's Home Baked pastries isn't enough, and soon the inn is put up for sale. Meanwhile, the town comes together to hold a fundraiser to help save the inn. Still, even with the people of Bucks County chipping in, Jenny and Brian are short of the money Meg wants, and the fate of Emily's Inn could fall into the hands of an interested buyer. He fails to see the inn's charm, and might rebuild the aging structure rather than tenderly repair it as Jenny and Brian have always done. For now, though, focusing on becoming husband and wife is all that matters to these loving innkeepers, and hopefully their happily-ever-after will be spent where they fell in love at Emily's Country Inn.
