

ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

'GOOD WITCH: TALE OF TWO HEARTS' Synopsis

As Halloween approaches, Cassie Nightingale (Catherine Bell) and Sam Radford (James Denton) prepare for their wedding, while Middleton prepares for the 200th anniversary of its rivalry with Blairsville. The rivalry centers on star-crossed lovers Patience and William, who mysteriously disappeared years ago, leaving behind only a 100-carat ruby – the Heart of Middleton. Grey House guests Karen (Joanna Douglas) and Addison (Christina Notto) are fascinated by the ruby, which is said to have magical romance powers. Karen, who is curating the ruby's exhibit, longs to find a man she loved and lost in Paris long ago, and Addison is on a mission to get her boyfriend Edward (Steve Byers) to propose.

When Cassie and Sam are forced to postpone the wedding, they try to focus on the fun of the Halloween Harvest Festival and gala, along with Patience and William's love letters. Grace (Bailee Madison) and Nick (Rhys Matthew Bond) also prepare for the festival's contests during their last Halloween in Middleton. Abigail (Sarah Power) works on outdoing former mayor Martha (Catherine Disher) by securing celebrity chef Ronnie Sue (Arlene Duncan) to judge the pumpkin pie contest and pressuring Stephanie (Kylee Evans) to cater flawlessly. Her cavalier attitude toward Martha's help drives Martha to defect to team Blairsville with her famous pumpkin pie recipe.

When the Heart of Middleton is stolen, Cassie suspects a Grey House guest but her magic intuition tells her that it will be returned. Neither Karen nor Addison benefit from the ruby's romantic power, as Eddie rejects Addison's ultimatum, and Karen seems no closer to reuniting with the man she met in Paris. Though romance in town is stunted, the Harvest Festival must go on – including the fiercely competitive town rivalry events. After initially falling behind, Middleton ties the competition with the help of Sam's pumpkin carving and Nick's scarecrow skills. However, Middleton is nervous going into the final competition – the pumpkin pie contest to be judged at the gala – against Martha's famous recipe.

The Halloween gala is filled with romance and surprises for all in attendance. Sam makes a discovery that solves not one, but two mysteries the town has been pondering. Love finally returns to Middleton and brings about an unexpected reunion. Middletonians are on edge as they await the results of the pumpkin pie contest that will decide if they will emerge victorious over Blairsville.

At the end of an already perfect night, Sam has one more romantic surprise for Cassie. Though their planned wedding day did not go as expected, there is plenty of romance ahead of Middleton's favorite couple.

-- HALLMARK CHANNEL --