

ENTERTAINMENT'S BIGGEST SUCCESS STORY!

'LOVE, ROMANCE & CHOCOLATE'

Synopsis

Emma Colvin (Lacey Chabert) is an accountant from New York who is heartbroken when her boyfriend Todd leaves her just before their planned romantic getaway to Belgium for Valentine's Day. Convinced by her friend Tina to cast aside her safe, predictable life and go alone on the trip, Emma decides to take a bold step and goes to Bruges in search of adventure. However, Emma gets more than she planned on when her Belgian innkeeper, Marie (Brittany Bristow) introduces her to a renowned chocolatier, Luc Simon (Will Kemp) during a tour of Bruges' famous chocolate shops.

The entire city is preparing for an upcoming royal wedding, and Luc and his fellow chocolatiers are in the midst of a competition to create the most romantic chocolate in Belgium for the soon-to-be-married couple. Emma, who has a love for baking, as well as some creative kitchen skills of her own, sees an opportunity to help Luc when she notices his assistant, Petra is very pregnant and needs some rest. Luc is intrigued by the American and invites her to help. Although Emma quickly finds herself immersed in the competition, what she had not counted on was the budding romance beginning to develop with Luc as they search together for romantic inspiration for their chocolate creation. They seem to find romance everywhere in Bruges, whether it's walking through the old market, or riding in a boat along the ancient canals.

Their plans for winning the competition, as well as their burgeoning romance, become threatened however, when Emma develops a new friendship with Max, another chocolatier and also Luc's biggest competitor, who, unbeknownst to Emma, is also trying to buy Luc's shop. When Luc sees them together, he feels betrayed and begins to pull back from showing Emma his true feelings.

With the Valentine's Day Royal Ball and final judging just hours away, Emma feels hurt by Luc's actions and contemplates leaving everything behind and returning home. Thankfully, Marie convinces her to stay for the big event since she's put so much of herself into the competition. As the Belgian prince and his fiancée prepare to announce who will be named the Royal Chocolatier, Luc realizes he has one last chance to make a bold statement to win the heart of the woman he so clearly loves.
