STUDIO CITY, CA – January 29, 2019 – The death of a successful vintner leads Alex McPherson to Pennsylvania wine country in "Chronicle Mysteries: Vines That Bind," a new original premiering Sunday, March 3 (9 p.m. ET/PT) on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries. Alison Sweeney ("Days of Our Lives," "The Biggest Loser") and Benjamin Ayres ("Saving Hope") star.

The latest edition of Alex McPherson's (Sweeney) true crime podcast leads her and most of the Chronicle staff to nearby Macklin, where they investigate the death of a vintner that was ruled an accident by the local police. Before Alex can get to the bottom of what she feels was a murder, another member of the family is felled by a bullet. She and her colleagues soon amass a formidable roster of suspects, of whom had the motive and opportunity to commit the crimes.

"Chronicle Mysteries: Vines That Bind" is a Lighthouse Pictures production. Executive producers are Alison Sweeney, Craig Baumgarten, Melissa Salmons, Jamie Goehring, Shawn Williamson. Producer is Kevin Leslie. David Weaver directed from a teleplay written by Kraig Wenman and Melissa Salmons.
