THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

'FLIP THAT ROMANCE' Cast Bios

JULIE GONZALO (Jules) – Across both film and television, Julie Gonzalo has starred and appeared in memorable roles in dramas and comedies alike. In 2015, she appeared opposite Danny Glover in the independent darling Waffle Street, and just last year she starred in the independent comedy How to Train Your Husband (aka: How to Pick Your Second Husband First.) Also in 2018, Gonzalo appeared in the hit TV series "Grey's Anatomy." Known by many for her portrayal of Rebecca Sutter in the TNT blockbuster "Dallas," Gonzalo also won the ALMA for outstanding supporting actress in a drama series for her role in the ABC hit "Eli Stone," produced by Greg Berlanti. In addition to "Eli Stone," she was also a series regular on "Veronica Mars."

Many people remember Gonzalo for her charismatic turns in such hit films as Must Love Dogs, starring Diane Lane and John Cusack; Christmas with the Kranks, in which she played Jamie Lee Curtis and Tim Allen's characters' daughter; and the smash hit comedy, Dodgeball, in which she played alongside Justin Long as his character's love interest. Gonzalo's other feature credits include A Cinderella Story and Freaky Friday. No stranger to the Hallmark Channel, Gonzalo starred in several of the network's original Movies including "Pumpkin Pie Wars," "Falling for Vermont," and most recently, "The Sweetest Heart."

Originally from Buenos Aires, Gonzalo is fluent in Spanish, helping her to land one of the lead roles in Lionsgate's Ladron Que Roba a Ladron, which garnered one of the highest opening weekends of all time for Spanish language films.

TYLER HYNES (Lance) – Tyler Hynes was born in Toronto and raised in Ottawa Ontario with the artist gene in his veins. He is an accomplished actor, director, producer, editor, writer and musician, and he is constantly striving to create and star in new and innovative projects. Hynes got his professional start at the age of eight performing on stage, touring Canada in the role of young Tommy in the rock musical The Who's Tommy. From there he went on to television and films. By age 13, Hynes was on television screens everywhere starring as a main character in "Amazon" and he hasn't stopped since. Some of his greatest accolades and achievements include a Best Actor Gemini nomination for "Tagged: The Jonathan Wamback Story," which told the real-life tragedy about a Canadian high school student who was beaten and left for dead.

At age 18, Hynes landed in movie theaters everywhere starring alongside Andie MacDowell and Tim Roth in The Last Sign. He then transitioned from teen actor to adult actor flawlessly, and in his 20s he worked alongside James Franco and Sienna Miller in Camille. Shortly thereafter, Hynes captivated audiences everywhere in NBC's "The Firm" based on John Grisham's novel, in which he portrayed the smug and overly intelligent Ivy Leaguer Patrick Walker, who was about to stand trial for first degree murder. He also appeared in "Betty and Coretta" opposite Mary J. Blige.

Last November, Hynes starred in Hallmark Channel's original Christmas movie, "It's Christmas, Eve," and before that, he starred in Hallmark's "Falling for You." In addition, he can be seen in a recurring role in the TV series "UnREAL," as well as a lead role in the feature film, Peace, starring opposite Alexander Ludwig. Hynes cultivated a huge following as a series regular on "Saving Hope," for his portrayal of Luke Reid, the paramedic brother of the main character, and his other notable recurring guest starring roles include "Transporter: The Series" and the critically acclaimed Canadian series, "19-2."

While his acting portfolio continues to prosper, Hynes keeps adding his name to grassroots indie projects where he has written, directed and starred in his own short films. A talented musician with a knack for the unknown, Hynes enjoys reading and traveling in his down time.
