STUDIO CITY, CA – March 7, 2019 – A young woman pursues her artistic dream and discovers that life – or rather love – definitely imitates art, in “A Brush with Love,” a new, original movie premiering Saturday, March 30 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel as part of the network’s annual Spring Fever programming event. Arielle Kebbel (Fifty Shades Freed, “Midnight, Texas”) and Nick Bateman (Hobo with a Shotgun, The Perception) star.

Jamie Spellman (Kebbel) struggles to balance her dream of painting with the reality of such a difficult career choice, but plans to expand her kids’ art school with the help of her dad. When she is selected to exhibit in a big art festival, however, her desire to paint is reawakened. Her dream of finding the perfect man is also about to become a reality, when Jamie is courted by a handsome businessman, and must choose between him and Max Hughes (Bateman), her best friend’s annoying brother who is all grown up now and professes his heretofore unspoken and abiding love for her.

“A Brush with Love” is a Two 4 The Money Media production. Executive producers are Steve Stabler, Antonio Cupo, Ivan Hayden, Michael Dennis O’Brien and Kim Arnott. Producer is John Prince. Peter DeLuise directed from a script written by Joie Botkin and Katherine S. Chang and Robin Karfo.
