

CrownMedia

THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

'BOTTLED WITH LOVE Synopsis

After being stood up by a boyfriend on the day of her friend's wedding, Abbey Lawrence (Bethany Joy Lenz), a normally reserved, career-focused executive from Boston, impulsively decides to pour out her feelings in an anonymous letter and admit her desire to find love, seals it in a bottle and tosses it into Boston Harbor. Months later, the bottle washes ashore in Maine and is discovered by Nick Everson (Andrew Walker), son of the CEO of the company where Abbey works and is about to secure the biggest deal of her career.

When Nick is called home to help with his father's company, he discovers the letter in his luggage and decides to contact the mystery woman with the only information he has – an email. Abbey is shocked at first to learn her letter was discovered, but with some help from her trusted Aunt Frances (Frances Flanagan), she decides to engage the online stranger. Back at work, Abbey is frustrated to learn that she's being asked by her boss, Mr. Everson (Barclay Hope) to work with Nick on the deal she brought to the company which was going to get her a big promotion. It's clear from the start they have two different working styles and are not going to get along, and when Abbey's deal falls through, things only get worse. However, the one bright spot in Abbey's life is her new-found friend online who seems genuinely interested in her. Without knowing each other's identity, Abbey and Nick begin an online relationship which eventually becomes a budding romance. At the same time, they are barely able to tolerate each other at work.

After a second attempt at securing a new acquisition for the company fails, Nick becomes determined to make the third try a success and enlists the help of Abbey in his plan. She notices and admires his dedication for the first time and begins to find him somewhat endearing, but she has no idea that Nick has also accidentally discovered she is the mystery woman he's been chatting with. When a stroke of luck helps them secure the big deal they had been seeking, Nick decides to reveal he is also the man who's been chatting with her, but Abbey's reaction is not what he anticipated. She feels lied to and manipulated because he discovered her identity but did not tell her immediately.

With his sister Sophie's (Katherine Elizabeth Isaac) wedding coming up, and knowing Abbey will be there, Nick decides to put his own heart on the line and make a bold statement to win the heart of the woman he so clearly loves.

-- HALLMARK CHANNEL --