CANDACE CAMERON BURE RETURNS AS INTREPID LIBRARIAN-TURNED-CRIME BUFF AURORA TEAGARDEN IN
'AURORA TEAGARDEN MYSTERIES: A VERY FOUL PLAY,' PREMIERING AUGUST 18, ON HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES

STUDIO CITY, CA – June 5, 2019 – A murder mystery play goes wrong when a very real murder takes place onstage, leaving Aurora’s nephew the prime suspect, in “Aurora Teagarden Mysteries: A Very Foul Play,” a new original premiering Sunday, August 18 (9 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries. Candace Cameron Bure (“Fuller House,” “The View”) returns to star in the latest installment of the popular mystery franchise, joined by co-stars Niall Matter (“Eureka”), Marilu Henner (“Taxi,” “Evening Shade”), Lexa Doig (“Andromeda,” “The Arrangement”) and Peter Benson (“Mech-X4”).

While attending a weekend confab of murder mystery and true crime fans, Aurora (Bure) and her Real Murders Club pals agree to appear in the stage production of a fun murder mystery. However, when a very real murder is committed on stage in front of everyone during an unplanned blackout, Aurora’s nephew Phillip (Sloane) becomes the prime suspect when the lights come back up and he is found holding the murder weapon, a bloody knife.

“Aurora Teagarden Mysteries: Where There’s a Will” is a Muse Entertainment in association with Head First Productions. Executive producers are Jim Head, Joel S. Rice, Michael Prupas, Candace Cameron Bure, Shawn Williamson and Charlaine Harris. Producers are Jamie Goehring and Trevor McWhinney. Martin Wood directed from a script written by Teena Booth and Michael Vickerman.
