

THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

'FOREVER IN MY HEART'
Synopsis

After a year of working at O'Hanlon's Inn in Ireland, Jenna Murphy (Merritt Patterson) prepares to move back to America. She and her boyfriend, Charlie O'Hanlon (Jack Turner), plan to stay together but they know the distance will make it difficult. Right when Charlie is about to give her a promise ring, she tells him that she has accepted a job in Ohio. Five years later and no longer with Charlie, Jenna has found success in the hospitality industry. Her colleague and boyfriend, Dave (Blake Berris), sends her to Ireland to pitch a new hotel property for their chain. Even more exciting: He proposes! Though Jenna has doubts about how her new fiancé's jet-setting lifestyle will fit into her future, she says yes.

On her way to see her friends at O'Hanlon's, Jenna meets Molly (Ingrid Craigie), who is headed there to meet an old friend. Inn owner Patrick O'Hanlon (David Herlihy), pal Katherine (Róisín O'Donovan), and Charlie's band mate Liam (Emmett Byrne) are thrilled to see Jenna. After overcoming initial awkwardness, Charlie shares with Jenna his plans to take over at the O'Hanlon Inn when Patrick retires. When Patrick breaks his ankle, Jenna volunteers to help Charlie with the rush of guests expected in town for a music festival. She helps with a never-ending to do list and works inspiration from O'Hanlon's into her new hotel pitch.

Just as Jenna and Patrick fall into a familiar rhythm, Dave arrives to surprise Jenna. Whereas Jenna and Charlie tend to see eye-to-eye, Jenna and Dave do not on issues such as their wedding and the direction of Jenna's presentation. Learning of the inn's struggles, Dave offers to buy it. Though Charlie turns him down, Jenna is upset that Dave went behind her back. Realizing they are not aligned about their future, Jenna and Dave end their engagement. Meanwhile, Patrick tells Charlie about losing the love of his life and tells Charlie he is lucky he has a second chance with Jenna. Later, Molly tells Jenna and Katherine that the old friend she was planning on visiting was really her old flame and that sometimes true love takes patience.

Jenna and Charlie continue to work together and grow closer. Jenna is touched when Charlie coordinates a surprise meeting between her and family members of her late father's. Later, at Charlie and Liam's performance, Molly and Patrick see one another and each immediately realize the other was their former love. They pick up right where they left off years before. With love in the air, Charlie sings a song that he wrote for Jenna.

While they are running errands for the Inn, Jenna and Charlie stop in the jewelry store where Charlie bought the ring that he never gave to Jenna. Jenna discovers that Charlie let her go five years ago because he didn't want to hold her back from her dreams. Now, having experienced life with Charlie and without, Jenna must decide between her fast-paced job in America or her life with Charlie working at O'Hanlon's Inn.
