A FUGITIVE THREATENS THE SAFETY OF BROOKFIELD IN 'WHEN HOPE CALLS'
STREAMING SEPTEMBER 27, ON HALLMARK MOVIES NOW

"When Calls the Heart" Star Kevin McGarry Guest Stars

STUDIO CITY, CA – August 14, 2019 – When a train robber is spotted near Brookfield, in "The Search," Lillian (Morgan Kohan) and Grace (Jocelyn Hudon) must do everything in their power to keep their orphans safe in "When Hope Calls," available for streaming Friday, September 27, 2019, on Hallmark Movies Now. Despite her initial instinct to trust Sam (Marshall Williams), Lillian second-guesses her gut when the description of the train robber – and the caution of Gabriel (Ryan-James Kinslow) – casts doubts on his character. Gabriel helps Constable Nathan Grant (Kevin McGarry), who is in town from Hope Valley, in hunting down the fugitive. Chuck (Greg Hovanessian) stays at the orphanage as a protective measure and to spend more time with Grace (Jocelyn Hudon). Tess (Wendy Crewson) interviews candidates for a new foreman but holds out hope that Chuck will eventually decide to run the family ranch. Meanwhile, Maggie (Hanneke Talbot) makes an interesting discovery at the infirmary.

"When Hope Calls," is a WHC Season 1 Productions Inc. In association with All Canadian Entertainment Inc., and Brad Krevoy Television. Brad Krevoy, Alfonso Moreno, Brian Bird, Michael Landon Jr., Susie Belzberg, Eric Jarboe, Jimmy Townsend and Amanda Philips Atkins are the executive producers. Kym Crepin, Michael Shepard and James Moorhouse are the supervising producers. David Anselmo serves as the producer. Don McBrearty directed from a script by Sara Snow and Larry Bambrick.
