'CHRISTMAS SCAVENGER HUNT'
Synopsis

When Belinda (Kim Shaw) returns to her hometown for Christmas, the first person she runs into is her old boyfriend Dustin (Kevin McGarry), who broke her heart years ago when she left for college and he decided not to join her at the last minute. Unable to hide her apprehension, yet heartfelt delight, Belinda flirtatiously reminds Dustin how much he hurt her, adding that she's definitely gotten over him. In fact, her new boyfriend Logan (John Welch) will be arriving in a few days to celebrate Christmas with her father Carl (Tom Arnold), who not-so-secretly wants Belinda to get back together with Dustin.

The next day at the town hall, Carl, who is in charge of picking teams for the annual Scavenger Hunt, "accidentally" pairs Belinda with Dustin. Together, each team solves a series of clues on their cell phones, that have them racing around doing everything from building a snowman and finding a reindeer snow globe, to making a gingerbread house and cutting down the perfect Christmas tree. As proof of their completed tasks, Belinda and Dustin take a selfie next to each item, and perhaps their most beautiful photo together is in front of the tree they bring to recluse James Brogue (Greg Ellwand). Making a lot of money in the oil business, the elderly gentleman is delighted to receive such a gorgeous tree and he invites Belinda and Dustin inside to decorate it. In fact, he recognizes Belinda immediately as the little girl who would come to visit him with her mother, who passed away a few years ago.

Truth be told, Belinda isn't back in her hometown just to celebrate Christmas, or to meet her girlfriend's new fiancé. In fact, the development firm Belinda works for in the city wants her to seal the deal on the town's rundown textile museum, and if she manages to close before the new year, she'll be promoted to Junior Vice President. Unbeknownst to the town, let alone Dustin, who is the director of operations at the museum, Belinda's client is planning to tear down the beloved structure to build condos. Conflicted as she and Dustin race through the Scavenger Hunt, Belinda doesn't know how she's going to tell him, especially since the proceeds from the event are going to go toward the museum's renovation.

But Christmas miracles seem to be happening everywhere, and Belinda and Dustin not only find every item on the Scavenger Hunt, but they also discover a comfortable peace in each other's company, especially after he reveals why he suddenly couldn't follow her to college. As Belinda begins to recognize the Dustin she once adored, he sees the beautiful Belinda he never stopped loving, but there's a big problem – Belinda's boyfriend Logan has just arrived. Love will surely solve everything, but how will the town's treasured museum be saved. It looks like another Christmas miracle must be scavenged to salvage this cherished part of the town's history.
