JESSE METCALFE AND SARAH LIND STAR IN
'A BEAUTIFUL PLACE TO DIE: A MARTHA'S VINEYARD MYSTERY'
A NEW ORIGINAL PREMIERING, JANUARY 12,
ON HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES

STUDIO CITY, CA – December 13, 2019 – Jesse Metcalfe (“Chesapeake Shores” “Christmas Under the Stars”) and Sarah Lind (“Edgemont,” “True Justice,” Humanity Bureau) star in “A Beautiful Place to Die: A Martha’s Vineyard Mystery,” a new original premiering Sunday, January 12, (8p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries.

After being injured and facing loss in the line of duty, retired Boston Police Detective Jeff Jackson (Metcalfe) returns to a quiet life of fishing, living in his late father’s home on Martha’s Vineyard. When a mysterious visitor to the island turns up dead, Jeff is reluctantly recruited to help in the investigation by the local police chief, a family friend. Adding a layer of complication, Zee Madieras – the chief’s daughter who shares history with Jeff – is the medical examiner on the case. As the murder investigation casts suspicion on some of the town’s most powerful and wealthy citizens and brings Jeff and Zee’s lives in peril, they race to solve the case before another tragedy strikes the peaceful vacation town.

“A Beautiful Place to Die: A Martha’s Vineyard Mystery” is a Muse Entertainment production. Joel S. Rice, Michael Prupas and Jesse Metcalfe are the executive producers. Charles Cooper is the producer. Mark Jean directed from a screenplay by Kraig Wenman, with a revision by Teena Booth. Based on the Martha’s Vineyard Mystery Series by Philip R. Craig
