

CrownMedia

THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

CREDITS

Title: "Mystery 101: An Education in Murder"

Format: Two-hour Hallmark Movies & Mysteries Original

Network: Hallmark Channel

Storyline: Amy can't believe her colleague, a Mark Twain scholar, poisoned a professor to get an early draft of Huck Finn. Determined to prove his innocence, Amy enlists help from Travis, whose predecessor is the cop who convicted her friend. Now the retired officer is going to great lengths to make sure his arrest stands. But Amy's not the only one who wants the conviction overturned. A woman writing a book about the case is linking it to another poisoned professor who accused a student of plagiarism. Both murders certainly bring a new meaning to the saying "publish or perish."

Executive Producer: Kristofer McNeeley

Producers: John MacCarthy
Kevin Leslie
Jamie Goehring
Shawn Williamson

Production Credits: Lighthouse Pictures

Directed by: Michael Robison

Written by: John Christian Plummer

Production Manager: Robyn Wiener

Production Coordinators: Joey Setter
Heather Eschuk

Director of Photography: Bob Aschmann

Production Designer: Sean Kirkby

Art Director: Lizzie Jackson

Costume Designer: Trish Petrovich

Set Decorator: Jacqueline Miller

Location Manager: David Angelski

Special Effects Coordinators: Jak Osmond
Robert Musnicki

Editor: Jason Hujber

Casting Director: Jackie Lind

Cast: Jill Wagner (Professor Amy Winslow)
Kristoffer Polaha (Detective Travis Burke)
Robin Thomas (Graham Winslow)
Preston Vanderslice (Bud)
Dejan Loyola (Blake)
Caitlin Stryker (Linda)
Brenna O'Brien (Ella)
David Lewis (Dwight)
Peter Bryant (Howard)
Steve Bacic (Mac)
Ashley Alexander (Nicole)
Angela Moore (Camilla)
Sofie Holland (Woman)
Raymond Terrell (Det. Frank Pool)
Kirby Morrow (Winston)
Miranda Edwards (Maria)

-- HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES --