CINDY BUSBY AND MARSHALL WILLIAMS STAR IN
'LOVE AT DAISY HILLS,'
PREMIERING SEPTEMBER 19, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

Part of the Network's Annual "Fall Harvest" Programming Event

STUDIO CITY, CA – August 19, 2020 – Cindy Busby ("A Godwink Christmas: Meant for Love," "Debbie Macomber's Cedar Cove") and Marshall Williams ("When Hope Calls," "Glee") star in "Love at Daisy Hills," premiering Saturday, September 19 (9 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel, as part of the network's annual "Fall Harvest" programming event.

When Jo (Cindy Busby) realizes that her family's general store in Daisy Hills (built by her late mother) is losing money, her father Duke (Paul Essiembre "The Christmas Club") calls in a favor to help out the store. Unfortunately, Duke's help is Jo's ex-boyfriend, Blake (Marshall Williams), former Daisy Hills native-turned-New York business consultant. They argue over the approach to saving the store: Jo understands the personal touch needed for a small town while Blake focuses more on how to make a profit. Eventually, they reach a compromise and find themselves falling back in love. But when Blake gets a call about his dream job back in New York City, things start to fall apart again, forcing Jo and Blake to make a decision about their future.

"Love at Daisy Hills" is a MarVista Entertainment presents a Neshama Entertainment Production. Dayna Zipursky, Suzanne Berger, Arnie Zipursky, Marianne C. Wunch, Hannah Pillemer and Fernando Szew are executive producers. Michael Moran serves as co-executive producer and Cary Davies serves as producer. Séan Geraughty directed from a script by Guy Cohen.
