CANDACE CAMERON BURE RETURNS AS LIBRARIAN-TURNED-CRIME BUFF AURORA TEAGARDEN IN THE LATEST INSTALLMENT OF THE HIT MYSTERY MOVIE FRANCHISE 'AURORA TEAGARDEN MYSTERIES: REUNITED AND IT FEELS SO DEADLY,' A NEW ORIGINAL PREMIERING OCTOBER 18, ON HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES

STUDIO CITY, CA – September 14, 2020 – Aurora’s high school reunion turns deadly in “Aurora Teagarden Mysteries: Reunited and It Feels So Deadly” a new original premiering Sunday, October 18 (9 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries. Candace Cameron Bure (“Fuller House,” “The View”) returns to star in the latest installment of the popular mystery franchise, joined by co-stars Niall Matter (“Eureka”), Marilu Henner (“Taxi,” “Evening Shade”), Lexa Doig (“Andromeda,” “The Arrangement”) and Peter Benson (“Mech-X4”).

Aurora (Cameron Bure) is excited to bring fiancé, Nick (Matter) to her 20-year high school reunion for Lawrenceton High School. However, when the former Prom King is found dead in the hotel pool three suspects from Aurora’s past may be to blame. Which one really did it? Perhaps one is trying to frame the other? It’s up to Aurora, Sally (Doig), and their Real Murders Club to help solve this mystery. As they do, Aurora, who has come face to face with her past through the reunion, must wrestle with the question: will marriage change what she loves about her relationship with Nick? First, though, there is a killer to catch.

“Aurora Teagarden Mysteries: Reunited and It Feels So Deadly” is from Muse Entertainment. Executive producers are Jim Head, Joel S. Rice, Michael Prupas, Charlene Harris, Candace Cameron Bure and Shawn Williamson. Producers are Jamie Goehring and John MacCarthy. Martin Wood directed from a story by Jim Head and Teena Booth with teleplay by Teena Booth.
