THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

'CHRISTMAS IN VIENNA'

Cast Bios

SARAH DREW (Jess) – Sarah Drew is best known for her 10 years starring as Dr. April Kepner on the ABC series, "Grey's Anatomy." Drew starred in the Lifetime movies "Twinkle All the Way" and "Christmas Pen Pals." She recently headlined the film Indivisible, which she also produced. Drew will be familiar to viewers for her work on The WB's hit series, "Everwood" as Hannah Rogers, opposite Chris Pratt. After graduating college, she landed a supporting lead role right out of the gate in the feature film, Radio, opposite Ed Harris and Cuba Gooding Jr. She has worked on many other films, notably as the lead in Moms' Night Out. Drew has done extensive theatre work as well, including playing one of the leads in the Broadway play, Vincent in Brixton, directed by Sir Richard Eyre.

BRENNAN ELLIOTT (Mark) – Brennan Elliott has been a professional working actor for 20+ years. He began his career in numerous episodic television roles but landed his break as a series regular on "Strong Medicine," in which he played Dr. Nick Biancavilla for 88 episodes.

In 2013, Brennan landed a series regular role in "Debbie Macomber's Cedar Cove" where he played the charismatic Warren Saget and began his relationship with Hallmark. Over the past eight years, Elliott has become a regular presence on Hallmark Channel and Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, having starred in several of the networks' original films such as "A Christmas Melody" and "Love You Like Christmas," as well as the "All of My Heart" franchise opposite Lacey Chabert.

He has a slew of other Hallmark films including "Christmas Encore" opposite Maggie Lawson for and "Christmas at Grand Valley" opposite Danica McKellar, both for Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, and "All Summer Long" opposite Autumn Reeser.

Additionally, Brennan starred opposite Brooke Shields in the "Flower Shop Mysteries" franchise for Hallmark Movies & Mysteries and currently stars in and serves as executive producer with Lacey Chabert in the popular franchise "Crossword Mysteries."

In between his filming schedule for Hallmark, Brennan managed to squeeze in a four-season series regular role on the critically acclaimed and darkly comedic series "unREAL" (now streaming on Hulu), in which he played the shows egomaniacal host Graham (a knock-off of Chris Harrison on ABC's The Bachelor).

Brennan's film credits have included 20th Century Fox's Night at the Museum: Secret of the Tomb and he played the male lead in Universal's Curse of Chucky.
