THE WORLDWIDE LEADER IN Celebrations

NICKY WHELAN AND GREG VAUGHAN CELEBRATE
'VALENTINE'S AGAIN,'
PREMIERING FEBRUARY 14, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – January 22, 2021 – Nicky Whelan (“Life in Pieces,” “Romance at Reindeer Lodge”) and Greg Vaughn (“Days of Our Lives,” “Queen Sugar”) celebrate “Valentine’s Again,” an original movie premiering Sunday, February 14 (9 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel. Marina Sirtis (“Young Justice,” “Star Trek: The Next Generation”) also stars.

As Kat (Whelan) dejectedly walks home from a failed Valentine’s Day date with an online match she was certain was perfect for her, she bumps into a mysterious stranger (Sirtis) who reveals that Kat spoke to the love of her life earlier that day. The next morning, Kat has a serious case of déjà vu and, after running into Marta once more, learns that she’ll continue to relive the same Valentine’s Day, over and over, until she connects with her soul mate. Kat is skeptical at first but follows Marta’s advice and goes out with each man she encountered. But when Kat finally goes on a date with Danny (Vaughan), the man meant for her, Cupid’s arrow misses the mark. Before Valentine’s Day will stop repeating itself, Kat must learn more about who she really is and what she wants from life in order to enjoy her happily ever after.

“Valentine’s Again” is from UFO International Productions. Cherise Honey is executive producer and the movie was produced by Jeffrey Beach and Phillip Roth. Steven R. Monroe directed from a script by Jack Sekowski.
