Last year she also starred in "Matching Hearts" during Hallmark Channel's "Love Ever After" programming event and in "Unlocking Christmas" for Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, which premiered during the network's annual "Miracles of Christmas" programming event. Additionally, Cole starred in the Hallmark Channel original movies "One Winter Weekend" and "One Winter Proposal," the first two movies in the trilogy, as well as "The Art of Us," "Christmas in Homestead," "My Summer Prince" opposite her "One Winter Weekend" co-star Jack Turner, "Appetite for Love," "Falling for You" and "Christmas Festival of Ice." She starred in The CW's "The Originals," and is featured in multiple episodes of the CBS suspense drama "Salvation." Cole co-stars with Val Kilmer and Tom Berenger in the feature film 1st Born, which was released in 2019.

Cole was a recurring guest star in TV Land's "Impastor," The CW's "Supernatural," A&E's "The Glades" and CBS' "CSI Miami." She was also a series regular on NBC's hit show "The Event." She starred in the Lifetime movie "Bad Blood" and can also be seen in the films Weaponized, The Violent Kind, which premiered at the 2010 Sundance Film Festival, The Surrogates and Twelve Rounds, as well as the MTV movie "All You've Got," among other film credits.

Cole made her television debut on The WB series "Summerland" as Erika, a role originally intended to be a guest star, and was promoted to series regular once Aaron Spelling and the other producers saw her work. She had recurring roles in "Heroes" and "Secret Girlfriend" and guest starred on "Ballers," "Castle," "Two and a Half Men," "Entourage," "NCIS" and "Melrose Place," to name a few. In addition, she stars in the music video for Mayer Hawthorne's "The Walk," Ryan Cabrera's hit song "True," as well as the video for Papa Roach's cross-over hit "Scars."

Born and raised in Arlington, Texas, Cole played on her high school's volleyball team and traveled the country competitively playing at the junior Olympic level. She also has traveled the world as a professional model to such countries as Italy, France, Germany and Australia. An avid sports enthusiast, Cole continues to play volleyball, golf, practice Tae Kwon Do and surfs (a sport she learned for "Summerland").
