LACEY CHABERT (Josie) – Lacey Chabert is regarded as one of the best young actresses of her generation. From an early age, she was exposed to dramatic and musical performances in and around her hometown of Purvis, Mississippi. Chabert received her first break in a cough syrup commercial before successfully auditioning for the Broadway production of Les Miserables, in which she played young Cosette for two years. In 1998, she made her feature film debut as Penny Robinson in Lost in Space.

Chabert's resume is as extensive as it is versatile. Consistently delivering memorable performances, she has become one of Hollywood's most sought-after talents. Best known for her role as Claudia on the Golden Globe Award®-winning FOX television series "Party of Five," Chabert has appeared on ABC Family's "Baby Daddy," ABC's "All My Children" as well as in several made-for-TV movies, including "Gypsy" starring Bette Midler; "A Little Piece of Heaven" with Cloris Leachman; Lifetime's "What If God Were the Sun?" starring opposite Gena Rowlands; and the Hallmark Channel Original Movies "Moonlight in Vermont" with Carlo Marks and Jesse Moss, "All of My Heart" with Edward Asner, "Matchmaker Santa" opposite Florence Henderson, "A Royal Christmas" alongside Jane Seymour and John Ratzenberger, "All of My Heart: Inn Love" with Brennan Elliott, "The Sweetest Christmas," "Love on Safari" opposite Jon Cor, "All of My Heart: The Wedding" with Brennan Elliott, "Pride, Prejudice, and Mistletoe," "Love, Romance & Chocolate," "Christmas in Rome," and "Winter in Vail." Hallmark Channel's "Christmas Waltz," and Hallmark Movies & Mysteries' "Time for Us to Come Home for Christmas" last year mark her ninth and tenth holiday movies for the networks. Chabert also starred in the Hallmark Movies & Mysteries Original "The Color of Rain," which was the highest rated and most watched original film in the network's history. Chabert also starred in Hallmark Movies & Mysteries' signature mystery movie franchise starting with "Crossword Mysteries: A Puzzle to Die For," and followed by "Crossword Mysteries: Proposing Murder," "Crossword Mysteries: Abracadaver," "Crossword Mysteries: Terminal Descent" and "Crossword Mysteries: Riddle Me Dead."

Chabert's feature film credits include Warner Bros.' Ghosts of Girlfriends Past, starring opposite Jennifer Garner and Matthew McConaughey; box office hit Mean Girls, for which she received outstanding reviews and an MTV Movie Award; Daddy Day Care, starring as Anjelica Huston's daughter; and A&E's "The Brooke Ellison Story," playing the lead in Christopher Reeve's final directorial project.

Known for her natural acting skills and charming personality, Chabert's cotton candy voice has been featured in numerous animated films and TV shows, including Nickelodeon's "The Wild Thornberrys," Sony's "The Spectacular Spider-Man," FOX's "Allen Gregory," Hasbro's "Transformers: Rescue Bots" and most recently, Warner Bros.' "Young Justice."

TYLER HYNES (Cooper) – Tyler Hynes was born in Toronto and raised in Ottawa, Ontario with the artist gene in his veins. He is an accomplished actor, director, producer, editor, writer and musician, and he is constantly striving to create and star in new and innovative projects. Hynes got his professional start at the age of eight performing on stage, touring Canada in the role of young Tommy in the rock musical The Who's Tommy. From there he went on to television and films. By age 13, Hynes was on television screens everywhere starring as a main character in "Amazon" and he hasn't stopped since. Some of his greatest accolades and achievements include a Best Actor Gemini nomination for "Tagged: The Jonathan Wamback Story," which told the real-life tragedy about a Canadian high school student who was beaten and left for dead.

At age 18, Hynes landed in movie theaters everywhere starring alongside Andie MacDowell and Tim Roth in The Last Sign. He then transitioned from teen actor to adult actor flawlessly, and in his 20s he worked alongside James Franco and Sienna Miller in Camille. Shortly thereafter, Hynes captivated audiences in NBC's "The Firm" based on John Grisham's novel, in which he portrayed the smug and overly intelligent Ivy Leaguer Patrick Walker, who was about to stand trial for first degree murder. He also appeared in "Betty and Coretta" opposite Mary J. Blige.

Most recently, Hynes starred in Hallmark Channel's original movie "It Was Always You" and previously starred in the network's "On the 12th Date of Christmas," "Winter in Vail", "Flip That Romance," "It's Christmas, Eve" and "Falling for You." In addition, he can be seen in a recurring role in the television series "UnREAL," as well as a lead role in the feature film Peace, starring opposite Alexander Ludwig. Hynes cultivated a huge following as a series regular on "Saving Hope" for his portrayal of Luke Reid, the paramedic brother of the main character. Other notable recurring roles include "Transporter: The Series" and the critically acclaimed Canadian series, "19-2" and "Letterkenny."

While his acting portfolio continues to prosper, Hynes' directing career is coming to the forefront. He has directed, produced and written seven worldwide released music videos and four short films to critical acclaim.
