

'LET IT SNOW'

CAST BIOS

CANDACE CAMERON BURE (Stephanie) – Many audiences know Candace Cameron Bure from ABC's hit television series, "Full House," where we affectionately knew her as D.J. Tanner. Still running in over 100 countries in syndication, Bure will forever be part of TV history through Nick At Nite and ABC Family network lineups.

With an acting career that started at the age of five, Bure appeared in several national television commercials and prime-time hits such as "St. Elsewhere," "Growing Pains" and "Who's the Boss." Bure also earned a string of lead roles in television movies including the critically acclaimed portrayal of an abused teenager in "No One Would Tell."

Her feature film credits stand up to the light of her television success with appearances in such films as "Punchline" with Tom Hanks and Sally Field. She entered another genre of pop culture when she was cast in John Hughes' "Some Kind of Wonderful" and the Cohen Brother's film "Monster Mash."

After Bure married NHL star Valeri Bure in 1996, she put her career on ice for a while in order to stay home and raise a full house of her own. She has been happily married for over 17 years and is the proud mother of three awesome kids.

Over the last few seasons, Bure has appeared in Disney's "That's So Raven," starred opposite Randy Travis in the PureFlix film "The Wager" and has fulfilled the duties as a guest host on ABC's top rated, daytime hit show "The View." Bure most recently starred in the Hallmark Channel Original Movie's, "Puppy Love" and "Moonlight & Mistletoe" and in the ABC Family hit show "Make It Or Break It" starring as Summer Van Horn. Since it debuted, "Make It Or Break It" scored huge numbers in the Nielson ratings each week as television's #2 most watched show in its time slot for females ages 12-17, with an overall average viewership of almost 2.4 million each week over the first ten weeks of the series.

Bure's philanthropic spirit has given support to the Skip1.org, Compassion International, Sheraton House and Children's Hunger Fund. Bure also serves as the National Ambassador for National House of Hope and continues to travel the country speaking at various churches and women's conferences sharing her Christian faith.

###

JESSE HUTCH (Brady) - Jesse James Hutch was born in Alberta, Canada and at the young age of ten was instantly hooked on the mystery of storytelling when he first saw the animated movie "The Hobbit." His first official audition, which he booked, was for FOX's "Dark Angel" in which he played the role of a Mutant, his second audition for "Wolf Lake" on CBS, which he also booked, had to be passed on due to a filming conflict with "Dark Angel."

(more)

HALLMARK CHANNEL / 'LET IT SNOW' – Cast Bios – Page 2

Hutch has starred in several TV series including "True Justice," "Kyle XY," "About A Girl," "Smallville" and "American Dreams." His other TV credits include "Once Upon a Time," "Heartland," "Hellcats," "The 4400," "V" and "Dark Angel." He has also starred in the Hallmark Channel Original Movie's "Three Weeks, Three Kids" and "How to Fall in Love." Hutch's feature films include "The Butterfly Effect," "Freddy Vs. Jason" and "Scary Movie 3."

Performing many of his own stunts, Hutch has always had an attraction to action and adrenaline. Kick Boxing, Muay Thai, white water rafting, kayaking and rock climbing are a few of Hutch's hobbies and past jobs.

Jesse Hutch's most important lead roles are husband, father, son and brother.

###

ALAN THICKE (Ted) – Alan Thicke has earned a Golden Globe® Best Actor nomination and seven Emmy® Award nominations (five for writing, two for acting). He starred as the dim-witted diva Dennis Dupree on the NBC series "Hope & Gloria" and has guested on countless episodics ranging from "Just Shoot Me," "Arless," "Son of the Beach" and "Married with Children" to "Seventh Heaven" and "Outer Limits." Television audiences know Thicke best as psychiatrist and father Jason Seaver from ABC's "Growing Pains," now syndicated in over 65 countries. "Growing Pains: The Reunion" was one of Disney's highest-rated TV Movies. He has also appeared on the CBS hit comedy "How I Met Your Mother."

Other TV movies and feature films include Disney's "Not Quite Human" trilogy, "The Calendar Girl Murders," "Windsor Protocol," "Rubdown," "Any Place But Home," "Obsessed," "Betrayal Of The Dove," "Ice Angel," "Crossroads," "Teddy Bear's Picnic" and recently starred in Hallmark Channel's Original Movie "Notes From Dad."

In theatre, Thicke received rave reviews opposite Jason Alexander in the Neil Simon/Burt Bacharach musical Promises, Promises and for his Broadway debut as Billy Flynn in Chicago-The Musical.

One of America's most sought-after emcees, Thicke has hosted event specials including; The Emmy® Awards, ABC's Olympic Kick-Off Gala, CBC's NHL Awards, ABC's Disney Christmas and Easter parades, ABC's and NBC's Fall Preview Specials, the Miss Universe, Miss World World and Miss USA pageants, Showtime's "Comedy All-Stars," "TV's Funniest Families and NBC's "World's Greatest Magic." His series hosting includes ABC's "Animal Crack-Ups," the Emmy®-nominated "Pictionary," A&E's "Travelquest," Game Show Network's "All New 3's A Crowd," "Miracle Pets" for PAX-TV and "Today's Man" airing on CNBC.

From 1980 to 1983, "The Alan Thicke Show" became (and remains) the biggest hit in the history of Canadian daytime television. The American late-night entry "Thicke of the Night" followed.

(more)

HALLMARK CHANNEL / 'LET IT SNOW' – Cast Bios – Page 3

As a headliner and speaker, Thicke's distinctive charm and humor have established him as one of America's all-purpose entertainers. Motivational lectures: IBM, Ford, Borland Technologies, Slim-Fast. Keynote speaker: including Utah Governor's Conference, Humana Hospitals, OrthoBiotech Industries, Des Moines Medical Society, Miami Health Day, Sacramento Earth Day. Host/Comic: includes everything from Awards Ceremonies for California's Building Industry and Atlanta's Real Estate Conference to The Chiropractic Centennial Celebration and the NHL's All-Star Banquet.

As a headliner, Thicke has played the main Vegas showrooms of the Hilton, Desert Inn and Sands, as well as Atlantic City's Resorts International, numerous cruise ships and corporate events for Borden, Nestle, Mattel, Baskin-Robbins, Brite-Smile and the Tournament Golf Association.

As an author, Thicke has recently come full circle, realizing a lifelong dream by signing a publishing deal for his first novel – Lovely Parting Gifts. His second humor book – How to Raise Kids Who Won't Hate You—is the sequel to How Men Have Babies—The Pregnant Father's Survival Guide, a perennial favorite since its release in 1999 and now translated into Spanish, German and Chinese. (Thicke's recorded version won an Audie Award, the Oscar for Books-On-Tape).

Thicke has written sitcoms for Castle Rock, Warner Bros., Viacom and the feature film scripts "Noone Hour" for Steve Tisch Productions, "Beauty Queens Must Die" for Allegro Films and "Travels With Dad" for TVA. He was executive producer for the NBC Movie of the Week – "The Secret She Carried" and penned his nationally syndicated humor column for the Toronto Sun. In fact, his television career began behind the scenes as a writer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. That talent soon led to the U.S. where he wrote and/or produced comedy specials and series for Bill Cosby, Flip Wilson, Kenny Rogers, Olivia Newton-John, Anne Murray and Barry Manilow. He produced and wrote the revolutionary comedies "Fernwood 2Night" and "America 2Night" for Norman Lear.

Thicke's background in game shows is extensive. He produced "Celebrity Sweepstakes" and "Wizard of Odds," launching the career of his friend Alex Trebek. "Wheel of Fortune" and "The Joker's Wild" are among over 45 television theme songs composed by Thicke, which also include "Facts of Life" and "Diff'rent Strokes."

Alan Thicke is married to Tanya Callau and is a proud father of three sons: Brennan, Robin and Carter.

--HALLMARK CHANNEL--